COLLECTION OF 1794 CENTS.

The basis of this collection is the former Phelps, which disputed with one other the position of being second to the famous Hays set, now in my possession. It was bought at a good price merely to slightly improve a very few pieces of the Hays set, the replaced pieces being transferred to this, and this collection further improved from stock.

As Hays 38 and 53 are known to be non-existent, this collection only lacks 5 of completion, Hays 30 and 44 and the 3 extra Nos. found after Hays' work was published. One of the lacking 5 is unique and the other 4 nearly so.

Too great a space would be necessary to describe each piece in detail, but it can be said that the price is very low, taking condition and rarity into consideration. In fact, after making a liberal deduction for the slight improvement to the former Hays set from the cost of the Phelps set and improvements thereto, it still represents an expenditure of over $500; but the price has been placed at less than cost.

Collection of 52 No.'s. Price, 450.00.

COLLECTION OF 2303 BROKEN BANK BILLS.

This large collection, when purchased several years ago, contained some duplicates, which after 5 days' careful work have all been taken out. It is distinctively a Bank Bill Collection, and does not include the Southern State, County and City issues of the Confederate War period. The values run from $1 to $500, with perhaps a dozen or so fractions of the dollar. There are a number of the odd values, $3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9. So large a collection must of necessity include many rare notes. In fact, in going over it many were noticed for the first time after years of handling similar lines. While there are notes in all conditions, the better grade greatly predominate, and the condition is far better than the general run of note collections.

Grouped by States they are as follows: Alabama 39—Arkansas 2—Connecticut 52—Delaware 19—Dist. Columbia 84—Florida 32—Georgia 218—Illinois 19—Indiana 91—Iowa 6—Kansas 6—Kentucky 28—Louisiana 50—Maine 41—Maryland 92—Massachusetts 338—Michigan 69—Minnesota 4—Missouri 10—Mississippi 68—Montana 4—Nebraska 25—New Hampshire 19—New Jersey 109—New York 180—North Carolina 95—Ohio 40—Pennsylvania 106—Rhode Island 56—South Carolina 81—Tennessee 114—Texas 3—Vermont 50—Virginia 107—Wisconsin 7—Canada 39.

Price of the collection of 2303 notes, 225.00.

Owing to lack of time, no comparison of the above with the 700 collection in $25,000 catalogue could be made, but it is believed that several hundred additional, differing, could be secured from it. There is also a lot of 45 early bills, 1800–1815, catalogued at $15, that would help enlarge the number. Any person wishing to buy these two items with the above collection can have all for 300.00.
